

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Colonel Ralph J. Borkowski's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Colonel Borkowski has devoted more than 30 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader of soldiers, dedicating himself to the assistance of soldiers as the US Army Emergency Preparedness Liaison Officer, as well as many years of support to the Engineer Corps, Golden Coyote Exercises, and service in support of Operation Desert Shield/Operation Desert Storm; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Colonel Borkowski continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Colonel Ralph J. Borkowski for more than 30 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 10, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
